

Hill Top Road, Birmingham, B31

3 bed · 1 bath · Semi-Detached House · £333,000

On market 75 days

Report ready

LISTING SCORE BREAKDOWN

Key Findings

- Low Viewings

Only 6-10 viewings since listing, indicating low buyer interest
- Overpriced

Buyers feel the property is overpriced for the area, with no price reductions since launch
- Poor Photos

Average photo quality, with homeowners describing them as 'usable but not standout'
- Good Portal Coverage

Property is listed on major portals like Rightmove and Zoopla, ensuring good online visibility

Pricing vs. Comparable Sales

Property	Beds	Type	Sold / Asking
Bristol Road, Birmingham	3	Semi-detached	£310,000
Kings Norton Road, Birmingham	3	Semi-detached	£320,000
Redditch Road, Birmingham	3	Semi-detached	£305,000
Hill Top Road, Birmingham	3	Semi-detached	£333,000

Recommendation

Reduce the asking price by 5-10% to £299,700 - £316,700

Based on the current asking price of £333,000 and buyer feedback that the property is overpriced, a reduction of 5-10% would make the property more competitive in the market and attract more buyers

Prioritised Action Plan

- 1

URGENT

—

Improve Listing Photos

Update listing with high-quality, professional photos to enhance buyer appeal
 - Hire a professional photographer to take new photos within the next 7 days
 - Replace existing photos with new ones on Rightmove and Zoopla within 10 days
- 2

URGENT

—

Adjust Pricing Strategy

Consider reducing the asking price to make the property more competitive in the market
 - Research similar properties in the area to determine a competitive price range
 - Reduce the asking price by 5-10% within the next 14 days to attract more buyers
- 3

HIGH

—

Enhance Listing Description

Improve the listing description to better highlight the property's best features
 - Rewrite the listing description to focus on the property's unique selling points
 - Add more details about the local area, including nearby schools and transport links
- 4

HIGH

—

Increase Online Visibility

Expand online marketing efforts to reach a wider audience
 - Add the property to more online portals, such as Property Ladder and Prime Location
 - Utilize social media platforms to promote the property and engage with potential buyers

Want deeper support?

Upgrade to Professional or Premium Strategy for a full re-launch plan and direct agent access.

stalelistings.com →